

Staircase to Heaven: A Journey of Hope and Resilience by Bud Morris

Product Description

Staircase to Heaven is a memoir by Bud Morris, an amputee who climbed Mount Everest. The book tells the story of his journey, from the accident that led to the loss of his leg to his successful summit of the world's highest mountain.

Morris's story is one of hope and resilience. He was just 24 years old when he lost his leg in a car accident. At the time, he was a competitive skier and mountaineer. The accident shattered his dreams of continuing his athletic career.

But Morris refused to give up. He learned to walk again with a prosthetic leg, and he eventually returned to mountaineering. In 2006, he became the first amputee to climb Mount Everest without the use of supplemental oxygen.

Morris's story is an inspiration to anyone who has ever faced adversity. It shows that anything is possible if you have the courage to never give up.
