Meet Max, Emily, and their mischievous pet, Dog, who form the heart of this charming zombie family. Every year, they eagerly await Thanksgiving, not for the brains (though those are always welcome), but for the warmth, laughter, and delicious aromas that fill the air.

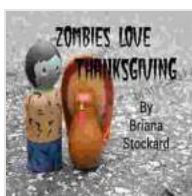

This year, however, things take a delightfully spooky turn. As the family prepares for their Thanksgiving feast, a group of mischievous ghosts decide to play a few tricks on them. But our zombie friends aren't afraid! With their ghoulish charm and quick wit, they turn the tables on the ghosts, leading to a hilarious and heartwarming adventure.

In Briana Stockard's delightful tale, "Zombies Love Thanksgiving," readers of all ages will find a heartwarming and hilarious story that celebrates the spirit of Thanksgiving with a spooky twist. Her charming illustrations bring the characters to life, capturing their infectious excitement and the vibrant atmosphere of the holiday.

The book's lovable zombie family reminds us that even in the midst of darkness, there's always room for love, laughter, and a good old-fashioned

Thanksgiving feast. With its engaging story and enchanting illustrations, "Zombies Love Thanksgiving" is a perfect read for the whole family, guaranteed to bring a smile to your face and a warm feeling in your heart.

So, gather your loved ones, curl up on the couch, and let Briana Stockard's "Zombies Love Thanksgiving" transport you to a world where laughter, spooks, and Thanksgiving cheer go hand in hand. Happy Thanksgiving from your undead friends!
